

A "SEEING HONOLULU" CAR TO BE RUN

Trent & Co., the "Thos. Cook & Sons" of Hawaii, have inaugurated a "Seeing Honolulu" proposition. A special car has been chartered by Trent & Co. It will be properly labeled and will be started out on Friday, when a "personally conducted" party will be shown the city wherever the lines run. This will take about three hours' time. Mr. Trent believes the proposition will prove successful.

Yesterday Mr. Trent sent two tallies loaded with strangers to the Palis, and another expedition today goes to Tantalus.

Mr. Trent is also arranging a Hawaiian luau for some tourists.

There's a toast that runs, "Here's to that wise man—he who knows himself."

Here's another toast along the same lines. "Here's to that wisest of all men, who knows that the best lunch and drinks in town are to be obtained at the CRITERION."

C. J. McCARTHY, Proprietor,

Clifford Potter, a real estate operator, for the purpose of engaging counsel to urge the passage of a bill in Albany making compulsory the recording of mechanics' liens and chattel mortgages. This matter was important to the Germania because of the large sums it has invested in building loans—New York Herald, December 21, 1905.
